Diamonds and Gold Bedeck Hands of Indians Found in Amazonian Wilds

BOSTON, Nov. 8. (P)-A man who saw gold and diamonds glistening in the hands of untutored Indians, but who sought the antecedents of their race rather than of their wealth, told his story of a year of adventure in Amazonian wilds in Boston today. Dr. William M McGovern, leader of the expedition backed by the British Museum, emerged from the wilds of the jungle and the Peruvian deserts this summer and landed in Boston yesterday.

"Frankly, I did not see any of the deposits of gold or diamonds in the tous an hinterland, but the Indians ahowed me samples and told me that was where they found them.

"But in the depths of the jungle I did see a race of primitive beings that is read and several 8-centimeter shitaircraft guns. It also is said to be equipped with sirplanes.

"But in the depths of the jungle I did see a race of primitive beings whom the more advanced Indians call pogses, or animal folk. not admitted, at the moment.

The day was opened by testimony from C. Russell Glidersleeve, once a lay reader in the New Brunswick church of 8t. John the Evangelist, of which Dr. Hall was rector. He testified that in the summer of 1921 he saw Mr. Hall and Mrs. Mills in New York on Broadway. He was not cross-examined.

"Did you see Rev. Hall and Mrs. Mills in New York?" asked Alexander Simpson, special prosecutor conduct-ing the trial for the State. "Yes." answered the witness.

The State's purpose in calling Gildersleeve was to reinforce its previous testimony to show that the love affair between Mr. Hall and his choir singer was generally known iong before the double slaying and that therefore Mrs. Hall, who is one of the three defendants, must have known of the affair herself.

"No questions," was the response of defense attorneys when he was tendered for cross-examination.

EIGHT RECAPTURED

Eight of the prisoners were captured in a corn field near London, thirty miles from here, after a hail of builets from a posse of thirty Columbus policemen and rural officers dreve them out. They had stolen an automobile to aid in their flight.

Warden Thomas shot one fleeing prisoner as he passed the prison office and another was pulled down by a fleet-footed guard near the penitentiary.

In one man at liberty, classed a mentally deficient, is Oliver Glaspy, serving three years on a statutory charge.

NO FATALITIES

No one was seriously injured, although four of the prisoners were wounded in the cornfield stege or in the fighting as the men broke out of the prison. The Governor said it has been arranged so Lutgens can spend some time between now and next January. The wounded are: Guards, George Bennett and John Cochran; E. J. If the entries continue to pile in as they have in the last two weeks, it appears as if Mr. Wrigley will have to start building boats to handle the event, as it will be necessary to have a boat for each contestant. The fours feature Patrick has the sum boat of come in as they have lately, I am reasonably safe in saying that we will have received 1000 names before the swim takes place. Freeddent Patrick is not overlooking a single swimmer, He is inviting them.

Lee and we played Bucknell.

Before telling that I want to relate a spectacular happening in a game last year between Fort Bennings and the Tennessee Doctors at Memphis. This game was played in slop and mud, rain having fallen practically all day. Some parts of the field were covered with three or four laches of water. In the lower end of the field we stopped once to determine if the Doctors had made a first down. I walked over to the side lines to locate the line for measuring the distance and when I returned the ball had floated six feet up the field. I do not recall ever having heard of such an incident.

My most spectacular play came in

E is at a high pitch this week with the championships in various conferences hanging on the results of the games yet to be played. Naturally enough, chief local interest is in the Trojan-Aggie game at Portland. If the Trojans win they have a slight chance for the title. If the Aggies win they are almost a cinch to at least tie. Stanford and Washington play Saturday at Paio Alto. If the Cardinals win they are practically sure of the championship. If they lose-well, that's something else again, and the Trojans-If they beat the Aggies-will have the best cheme of any for the title. various conferences hanging on Down here things are in a similar mess with two of the leading conference possibilities flying at each other's throats on Armistice Day at Whittier, when the Sagehens and Poets mingle. Due to the fact that Pomona and Whittier each play one more conference game than the Bruins the winner of this contest stands a better chane to win the title than the U.C.L.A. outfit. A tie would not hurt eit'er Pomona or Whittier much, but a game lost would put them on the shelf. Caitech and Oxy have no chance to win the title, but each has a chance to kick a possible winner in the slats.

There has never been an instance in the history of local football when there were so many evenly matched football teams to be found in this vicinity. There isn't a thin dime's worth of difference between five schools in the Southern California Conference, and when they meet the team which happens to be rarin' to go wins the game. U.C.L.A., Pomona, Oxy. Whitter and Caltech are very evenly matched, as the results of their various games indicate, and should Caltech walion the Bruins, which isn't at all impossible, the thing will be in a terrible mess.

The Bruins were right on their toes when they met Oxy and Pomona and were just a little off when the met. Whittler. The Poets were right on their toes when they met Caltech and the Bruins and were a little off when they met Oxy. Pomona was right on top of the ball playing Caltech and little off against the Bruins. Caltech was a little off against Caltech and a shade off against Caltech and the Bruins. It's a tough race.

The attendance figures for the season just closed showed that San Francisco, with a tail-end bail club, led all the rest in attendance. The Scals outdrew the Los Angeles club, pennant winners, by 50,000.
Oakland was second in attendance, 20,000 behind the Scals. The Missions were third, and Los Angeles, the flag winners, came in fourth.
Sacramento outdrew Portland, and Fom Turner blushed when he heard that.

The Redlands game this Saturday is especied to be more or less of a practice affair and the Bruin mentor is thinking of the next two weeks, when the outcome of the Caltech game may mean the winning or losing of the conference buncing, and the week after that when the Bruins make their initial plunge into intersectional foetball with Iowa State at the Collecum.

Now that Coach "Fox" Stanton has brought the Beavers to life, the Bruins are in for a touch afternoon. The Engineers came though strong should have have an equally good chance to turn the same risks this time. However, Southern Brauch has improved considerably since the Whitter game, and the Bruins are favored to win by a slight margin. Spaulding also wants to send the lowa State Cyclones home with the short end of the score, masmuch as Full will be showing his new love of to his former playmates from the Middle West.

Tommy Travers's celebrated feat of crowning a new world's wrestling champion and removing the diadem by a gesture in the next minute seems to have washed up the funny little referee as an acceptable mat official locally. Lou Daro swears that at least 100 people demanded their money back at the last show when they learned Tommy was to referee. That shows how much the cash customers swallowed Travers's faux pas in the Stecher-Pesek match. At any rate, Daro claims that unless the State Atheletic Commission installs a new referee the interest in the game will be stiffed.

POMONA COLLEGE (Claremont) POMONA GOLFERS IN CLARE MEET FRESNO SQUAD

COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE.
DAVIS, Nov. 8.—Thursday's game with Fresno State College will be the last chance for the California Aggie Mustangs to raise their present status our esteemed friend, Oscar B, Reichow, business manager of the Los Angeles basethe schedule-makers now assem-bled in Portland would not hesitate about opening the Coast and close before the world series and football kill all interest in Oscar has been with us about five years, having come here from the thug-ridden city of Chicago, and he has seen the combined counter attractions of world se-ries and football successfully sti-fle interest in the Coast race even when the pennant winner was not decided until the last game. This was the case in 1924, when seattle won the rag and Los An-geles had a chance clear up to the closing day.

Of course, the whole trouble lies with the moguls themselves. They believe that because they had successful seasons with the same schedule years ago, football ought not to cut any figure. Such argument only proves that the club owners are way behind the time. Five or six years ago local inferest in football games amounted to early-season crowds of 2000 or so. If Borrard Field, the largest football stockade hereabouts, contained a crowd of 7000 for a California-U.S.C. or U.S.C.-Stanford game late in the season, everybody talked about the big turnout. Crowds of 75,000 for football were unheard of. Interest in the opening of the season was dilatory. Now the minute it starts nobody talks anything else. If the baschall club owners were smart they could read the writing on the wall.

We owe an apology to that good little boy, Izzy Schwartz. He and not Ernie Hood won their fight at Vernon Saturday night, as was erroneously reported. In fact, Schwartz won so convincingly that he captured practically every round. PASADENA SEL

in New York

NEW YORK, Nov. 8. (P)—The discovery today of a woman's dismembered and headless body in a coal bin in the basement of a fashionable spartment house in Flushing led to the arrest of Patrick McClafferty, assistant superintendent of the building, on a charge of murder. The woman was Miss Rabins Lyttle, about 50 years of age, often seen with McClafferty. She was a nurse employed at times by residents in the house McClafferty was found wandering around, apparently dazed, a few blocks away. He is said to have confessed that he diamembered the body after Miss Lyttle died of some discase, and burned the missing parts. This confession, the police say, was made to avoid suspicion of murder. An effort is being made to get a clear story from him.

A physician said the woman had been dead about five days. Stains in a closet in McClafferty's apartment in the house led to the belief that the body was hidden for a while in the closet. Photographs of Miss Lyttle were found in McClafferty's rooms.

Orange County

5ANTA ANA, Nov. 8. (Exclusive)— Two slight earthquake shocks were felt in Santa Ana and Orange county today, the first occurring at 5:45 p.m. and the second at 9:50 p.m. No dam-age has been reported. Shocks occurring at 11:56 a.m. Sun-day and intermittently Sunday night were felt in Santa Ana. Orange coun-ty appears to have been the only sec-tion of the Pacific Coast to have been visited by the temblors.

DAM DEDICATED ARMISTICE DAY

Melones Project Completion to be Celebrated

Built by Power Company and Irrigation Districts

Stanislaus Development Cost $4,700,000

STOCKTON, Nov. 8. (Exclusive)-Manifesting a principle that farm-ers are primarily interested in water for irrigation and that power comwater for power and that although water for power and that although adhering to their primary interests the two agencies can aid each oth-er, the Melones Dam, joint property of the South San Joaquin Irrigation District, the Oakdale Irrigation Dis-trict and the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, will be formally dedi-cated with proper ceremonies and a celebration on Armistice Day. a celebration on Armistice Day.

Approximately 8000 persons from all sections of the State are expected at the celebration. A program will begin at 11 o'clock, followed by funcheon and a supervised inspection of the dam. Among the speakers will be P H. Oriffin of Modesto and John Hancock of Stockton, representing the two irrigation districts; Wiggington Creed, president of the power company and Irving Martin, Sr., president of the Stockton Chamber of Commerce and former president of the California Bailtond Commission.

Various cities within the two irrigation districts are to send automobile caravans to the celebration.

NOVEL AGREEMENT

The expenditure of $4.700,000 for the project represents a novel agreement between the irrigation districts and the power company and the project embodies practically all the ideas in water development heretofore advocated by Secretary of Commerce Hoover, who has urged the West to make double use of its water resources.

West to make double use of its water resources.

The two districts bonded themselves in the amount of $2,200,000 to construct the dam an' the power company is constructing a power plant costing $2,500,000 and capable of generating $3,000 horsepower. The power plant will not be completed until May 1, 1927.

In exchange for the use of the water passing through the dam the power company has agreed to pay the districts $5,175,000 over a period of forty years, this amount entirely paying off the bonded indebtedness of the districts, plus the interest. The power company will control the dam from November 1 to March 1, and the districts, the remainder of each year Upkeep and maintenance of the dam will be evenly divided between the power company and the two districts.

The project automatically settles all disputes between the power company and the districts and farmers hereafter will get the use of any water released from the power company's reservoirs above the dam.

OVERPLOW TYPE

OVERFLOW TYPE

OVERFLOW TYPE

The dam is located on the Stanislaus River, about twelve miles below the mining town of Melones, and eight miles west of Jamestown, or "Jimtown" of the days of '80. Above it are about twelve square miles of natural reservoir area.

So great is the run-off of the Stanislaus River during its. flood periods that it will take but a couple of weeks to fill the reservoir with 112.000 are feet of water.

The dam is declared to be the second highest overflow type dam in the United States. All other dams provide spillways for the escape of water after the reservoir is filled. It is 173 feet in average height, and its length along the creat is 855 feet. Thickness at the base is 112 feet, and at its creat twenty-four feet. More than 90.000 cubic feet of concrete has already been poured into the big structure.

already been poured into the big structure.

When the water is r leased it will continue its flow down the Stanislaus River to the Goodwin dam, jointly owned for several years by the irrigation districts, and heretofore used as their main storage reservoir for water. Here the water will be allocated to the two districts.

The South Ban Joaquin Irrigation District embraces 72,000 acres intensely cultivated and improved. The Oakdale district has 74,000 acres.

The Mathews Construction Company of Sacramento constructed the dam and all other improvements in which the irrigation districts are directly interested, while the Pacific Gas and Electric Company is taking care of its power project.

George K Parker, former engineer for the South San Joaquin Irrigation District, served as superintending engineer for the construction company, and R. E. Hartiley, engineer for the Cakdale district, was chief engineer for the two irrigation districts. George D. Macomber was resident engineer, and C. L. Riley engineer for the South San Joaquin district, arosciate chief engineer. A. J. Wiley, who was engineer on the Don Pedro and Exchequer dams, was consulting ensineer for the Melones project.

The dam will be entirely completed by December I. and the reservoir will be filled with water this winter for next season's irrigating.

Abhorrence of War Object of Peace Meeting

PITTSBURGH. Nov. 8. (P)-Cree tion in the world of a "new moral consciousness that will hold war a thing abhorred." is the problem faced by the International Goodwill Conby the International Goodwill Congress which cohvenes here Wednesday, in the opinion of officers of the World Alliance for International Friendship, sponsors of the congress. Speaking at various churches in the Pittsburgh district yesterday, officers of the alliance urged as one step toward removing the causes of war, that the "hale with which historians have endowed it," be stripped away.

Fred B. Smith, chairman of the executive committee, declared it is essential to world peace that America assume her responsibility as one of the family of nations and "bear her share of the effort to root out the causes of war and prevent its recurrence."

CHURCH SERVICE CRITICISED

Ministerial Meeting Speaker Says Entertainment Has Supplanted Divine Worship

Most modern Protestant churches are engaged in entertaining their congregations rather than in worshiping God, according to the opinion voiced by Dr. Shelton Bissell of the Union Church at San Dimas in an address given yesterday before the Los Angeles Congregational Ministers' Association at the Pirst Congregational Church.

Reviewing Dr. W. L. Sparry's book, evy Emerson Fosdick and Dr. Frank "Reality in Worship." Dr. Biasell agreed with the author, who deplores the tencency of worship as a means to an end rather than as an end in litself. Dr. Bissell said, an effect, that the true liturgical church offers something to God, but that many modern churches, in their popular bids for large congregations, practically forget the Almighty, for worship of whom the church is supposed to exist.

Dr. Bissell's address created a sam discussion, many ministers disagreeing with the speaker and Dr. Sparry, and declaring that one of the chief ims of worship is to make the worshipe and baptier mobiler and baptier and ministers meeting next Monday morning Dr. Frank Dyer will speak on "Men and Movements in Great Britain today."

Pacific-Southwest Business

By James H.Collins

Come West, Old Man, and Grow Up With Your Customers!

IN THE Los Angeles tele-phone book I saw the name of a friend — his company, rather. A fine old concern, with rather. A fine old concern, leadership in its line, and branch factories scattered over the United States.

"Oh, that's "Oh, that's just a sales office," he answered, when I wrote him. "For we take care of customers in the Pacific-Southwest from our factories in Blocktown and Dashville." . . .

Some days young engineer who had been East, talking to men like my friend, present facts pointing toward branch factories in Southern Cahlornia.

"I know him!" said the engineer. "He's heard the story several times, and we've sent him a detailed report on the situation, but he thinks his customers are being served well enough from his two nearest plants."

Telling the engineer that my friend was conservative. I wrote ward branch factories in South friend was conservative. I wrote again.

"If you say so, maybe there's something in it," was his reply, "but we've always felt that part of the country was full of boosters, and that statements coming from there were subject to very large discounts. I'll look into the situation again."

"If he doesn't." said the engineer, later, "some morning he'll wake up to hear that a competitor has captured the Pacific-Southwest by building a factory and taking his customers. We're, working now with another concern that is very much awake to the possibilities."

A S FAR as I know, Southern California business organizations are the first to send the engineer on this sort of mission, instead of the salesman. And where the salesman often made an impassioned argument, the engineer, just spreads out a few curves and charts. No argument, no community pride, no dimate ecstacies. To anyone who can read engineering graphs, the story is plain.

"Three years ago, when I first went East." says this engineer, "it was hard to get a hearing. 'Another booster from Southern California!' they laughed. Two years ago, it was easier. Last year the reception was distinctly good. This year I found it hard to get away from them. They wanted to hear all about it, because something has been happening to their sales here.

shot!"

He could only tell them that population, bank clearings, building and other activities are steadily increasing in the Pacific-Southwest, and suggest that decreasing sales might be due to shortcomings in their products or distributing methods.

THE past lives long in the memory of folks at a dis-tance. An American in London wants to see Dickens' characters, the European in this

COMMENT INVITED

James H. Collins, the internationally known writer on business topics, is engaged in writin; a series of studies on the business and industrial conditions in Southern California and the Pacific-Southwest for the First National Pacific-Southwest Banking Group.

These reports—to us, not by us—have been appearing in this newspaper each Tuesday for the past three months.

Comment upon them is invited. This invitation is extended to the manufacturer, the agriculturist, the orchardist, the merchant—in short, to every citizen. Are Mr. Collins' articles helpful in solving your business problems? Address Department 50-F-1 care of either of these institutions.

country looks for Indians, and in the East they have not yet discovered that the Western booster is passing away—has passed in many localities.

My friend, the manufacturer, is taking care of customers in this region by methods that were satisfactory in the days of big ranches, cowbovs, horse transportation, few towns and long credits. He must come here and see that the West has become a cash-and-carry country, like the East, in manufacturing and distribution, and that his customers need better service.

HE first factory here will get 50 per cent of the business the first year, and 10 to 20 per cent more the second year," said the engineer. "We'll see that it is supported, and won't ask lower prices, either."

PACIFIC-SOUTHWEST FIRST SECURITIES
TRUSTAND SAVINGS BANK FIRST SECURITIES

"What's the matter with Southern Caifornia, anyway?' they ask this year. 'The way our sales have fallen, off out there, you must be all shot to pieces. Of course, you boosters won't admit it—but you are shot, ain't you? Come on—own up that you're shot!"

He could only tell them that "We'll ask peop e who use that product to line up behind the brand made here. The product is used extensively by farmers and orchardists, who are organized to buy supplies. Also, by some large manufacturers making heavy staples. We will offer them quick deliveries, and prompt adjustment of claims for damaged goods. They will not need to carry such large stocks themselves, a saving in investment. to carry such large stocks themselves, a saving in investment.
Money spent with local manufacturers goes into work and wages for people living here, and some of it ultimately comes back to those who spend it. There is a million dollars' worth of orders which can be massed for the first factory that comes."

THE belief that times are bad in Southern California is so prevalent in the East that many an executive, guiding the policy of a great manufacturing concern, attributes shrinkage of business to that apparent cause. There is a feeling that the long "boom" has broken at last, and that the Westerners are trying to revive it by day-to-day-in-every-way incantations. Many folks hving here in the Pacific-Southwest complain of dull times, because they do not understand that solid growth and normal conditions have replaced the excitement of "boom" days. If some home folks have that viewpoint, the Easterner's mistaken ideas are comprehensible.

"You're shot to pieces," de-clares the Eastern manufacturer. "And besides, you're a hot air artist."

night hear a paraphrase of Horace Greeley's famous advice: "Go West, old man, and grow up with your customers."

AGAIN and again, in my incestigations, I have found cases where Eastern concerns were trying to hold their customers here at long distance, against handicaps like high freight rates, the importation of raw materials through Pacific ports, the higher wages and manufacturing costs of the Eastern industrial centers, the impossibility of man-to-man deal-liveries and adjustments, and so forth.

but the alert tellows are in-restigating. Branch factories have begun coming. More will come—the next five years should see remarkable happenings here.

These prizes are EXTRA and in no way conflict with the awarding of the regular prizes, valued at more than $50,000, at the end of the campaign. The winners of the extra prizes will be announced by the official judge of the campaign.

All new subscriptions on this gold offer will also apply on the 90,000 extra vote offer, thus giving new subscriptions a triple value extra gold, extra votes, and

HOW TO GET THE EXTRA VOTES

In addition to the extra gold prizes, candidates are offered a wonderful opportunity to get thousands of extra votes by forming "new subscription clubs." Ninety thousand extra votes will be given to candidates for each $30 worth of new subscriptions turned in on or before November 24-9 p.m.

All new subscriptions to The Times, daily, Sunday, or daily and Sunday, will be accepted on $30 clubs. Any combination may be made up to constitute a club. The 90,000 votes are a bonus in addition to the regular votes allowed on each subscription, as shown in the regular vote schedule on this page.

There is no limit to the number of clubs any candidate may turn in. For every club there will be 90,000 extra votes, and for every dollar over or under a club. extra votes will be given pro rata.

All new subscriptions turned in during this period (November 9 to 24, inclusive) will apply on both the 90,000 extra vote offer and

NEW SECOND PAYMENTS COUNT ON SPECIAL OFFER

Candidates who have secured NEW subscriptions since this campaign started may secure extensions on those subscriptions and apply them on this double offer. Credit will be given for the amount of the second payment, besides giving regular votes on the total length of subscriptions less the regular votes issued on the first payment. Be sure to mark on your remittance sheets "new second payment" where such is the case, and state also the amount paid on the first payment.

For example, if the first payment was $5.40, and another $5.40 is now paid to extend the subscription to a full year, the candidate will receive credit for the balance of votes issued on a yearly subscription. Since a six months' subscription at $5.40, is worth 6000 votes, and a yearly subscription at $10.80 is worth 15,000 votes, the candidate turning in the second payment of $5.40 would receive 9000 votes on that second payment, and the second $5.40 would apply on the present double offer.

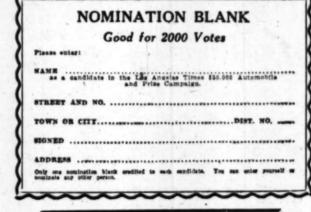

LATE STARTERS AND NEW CANDIDATES SHOULD BEGIN NOW!

You can enter now and win an automobile at the end of the campaign. December 18. The next few weeks offer wonderful advantage for those who desire to win. Good fortune is within easy reach.

The nomination blank shown here counts for 2000 free votes. By securing new subscriptions among your friends and acquaintances, and building them into $30 clubs, you will receive 90,000 extra votes on top of all regular votes given on each subscription comprising the club.

Address-CAMPAIGN DEPARTMENT THE TIMES LOS ANGELES, CAL.

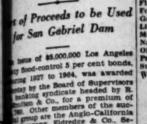

There is no limit to the number of clubs you may turn in during this offer. If your total amount in new subscriptions during this period is the highest of all candidates you will receive $200 as EXTRA AWARD. If you are next highest in the division you are listed in, you will receive $100 in gold. Truly a marvelous offer! Extra votes and extra gold for extra effort! Turn in your subscriptions as fast as secured. The campaign office will keep an accurate record and issue a special vote ballot for extra votes due at the close of the offer November 24.

A Profitable Line of Business suits of the United States the department store business is one of the most profitable and most stable. Wide diversifications of merchandise, with an appeal to all classes of people insure volume sales and frequent capital turnovers under practically all condi-tions. The Los Angeles field is a notably favorable one for the department store business, and one of the outstanding successes of this community is the widely-known "Broadway," founded about thirty years ago by Arthur Letts. In perpetuation of the principles and policies which have been responsible for the up-building of this great business (amounting last year to approximately $17,000,000) new corporation, known as Broadway Department Store, Inc., has been formed, and in the financing thereof, an issue of 7% Cumulative First Preferred Stock is now offered at $99 per share and accrued dividend, including Common Stock Purchase Warrants. These warrants will provide an op-portunity for the holder to share in the future growth and profits of the business. The present offering, therefore, is one of unusual attractiveness.

CAPITALIZATION

*Limited by the Indenture providing for the issue thereof.
181,819 shares reserved for conversion of Six Per Cent Convertible Gold Debentures. The following information has been summarized by Mr. C. T. Chenery, President of the Corporations BUSINESS AND PROPERTY: The constituent companies of the Federal Water Service Corporation, now owned and presently to be acquired, supply water for domestic and industrial purposes to various communities in New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, Illinois and California. The total population of the territories served is estimated to be in excess of 630,000.

EARNINGS: Based upon actual earnings for the year ending June 30, 1926, the consolidated earnings of the peoperties, after giving effect to this and other financing, to rate increases now in effect or approved, to additional pumping contracts, and to the elimination of certain officers' salaries of sub-idiary companies, are as follows:

NOTE: Data for a few companies were based upon periods other than the twelve months saded June 26, 1956. The above earnings are equivalent to approximately $6.02 per share on the Class A Stock, or over first times the present $2 dividends rate on this issue.

DIVIDENDS: Quarterly dividends are being paid upon Class A Stock at the rate of $2 per share per annum and the Board of Directors has announced a policy of continuing dividends on this basis on the first days of March, June, September and December in each year. In addition to the $2 dividend the Class A stock is entitled either to one-half of the agreement amount of any further dividends declared in such year upon the Class A Stock and the Class B Stock or to the same dends per share as is declared on the Class B Stock, whichever is the greater. Total Class B shares issued may not cotal Class A shares issued.

MANAGEMENT: The management of the individual properties is in the hands of the men who have been repeated for their success and who have operated these properties over a period of years. The management of the Federal Wass Service Corporation is long experienced in public atility work, particularly in the water works field. All of the properties with the exception of 'hose located in New York, are under the jurisdiction of the Public Service Commissions in the second control of the properties o

Why We Advise Buying National Mortgage Common at $10 a Share, Now

We Know the profits of soundly organized mortgage companies, amply capitalized and ably managed, are very large.

We Know that the National Mortgage Company is organized on con-servative policies; that there has never been a single share

We Know that National Mortgage Company, with assets of more than $5,700,000, is today one of the largest mortgage companies on the Pacific Coast

We Know that the management of National Mortgage Company is of unusually high ability and wide experience, with valuable contacts established among insurance companies and other Eastern capitalists who buy mortgages.

We Know that National Mortgage Company has from the first earned more than the requirements for preferred dividends, plus a

We Know that all earnings above 4.7% on its fixed capital are applicable to Common stock.

We Believe that earnings will continue constantly to increase.

We Believe that National Mortgage Common must therefore become a highly valuable security.

We Believe the potential earning power of National Mortgage Comfully justifies a much higher price than $10 per share.

We Believe that investors who buy at $10 now will realize a most gratifying profit through increase in market value

We offer, subject to Prior Sale, NATIONAL MORTGAGE COMMON , at $10 per share. A limited amount, only, is available at this price

COTTON MARKET

NEW YORK, Nov. 8. (Exclusive)—
The government's crop report making the yield from the lat inst. Indications as arge as 17,918,000 bales without linters, was so closely in line with what the trade had been looking for and the markets had discounted last week, that it had no fresh influence as a factor on the market. Its estimate compares with 17,440,000 bales in the average of the consensus of opinion of the trade here and at New Orleans. In fact, the average guess of ninety-five active members of the New York Cotton Exchange collected up to last Thursday was for 17,912,000 bales.

The one thing that stands out, however, in today's report makes some of the private forecasts of last week so ridiculously high they had no foundation. Several were for 18,200,000 bales, and one for 18,324,000. The present crop is to be compared with the previous record crop of 16,200,000 bales without linters produced in 1914, but its effect has been largely discounted in the current low prices for more than a fortalist. They are between 30 and 40 per cent below the average cost of Taxas and Okiahoma, where cotton can be raised cheaper than most of the other States in the belt from the much less use of fertilizer.

Prices actually advanced 30 to 28 points over Saturday's closing quotations on nervousness of shorts before the government's report was announced. This advance brought December up to 12,46c, January 12,54c, March 12,76c, May 13,05c, and July 13,29c.

The market was practically at those prices when business was resumed at 11.15, after the digestion of the government's figures, there was little change in prices. Steel Bid Up Sharply a Offset to Pressure on Motors

NEW YORK, Nov. 8. (Exclusive)—
Bullish activities again centered in Steel common, which was bid up briskly to new high levels for the recovery, in an effort to offset the effect of continued selling of General Motors. Despite the frequent displays of weakness in the latter issue, Steel pushed steadily forward, large buying orders coming into the stock as the day progressed. The short interest became highly nervous with the turn of the day and it was then that the best prices of the season were reached. With the unfilled tonnage statement—due at moon on Wednesday, there was a disposition on the part of the shorts to cover contracts rather hastily late to cover contracts rather hastily late in the day. At the top the stock was up more than 8 points from last week's low level.

against eighteen oil companies and individuals, seeking to prevent them from operating until they stop oil leaks in the Pacific Ocean and into streams, were filed in Superior Court here today by Attorney Marx-Greene, representing the State Fish and Game Commission, and Atty-Gen. Webb. City Attorne: Mason and Dep. Dist. Atty. Clark.

The complaints declare the "carbonacogus material" permitted to flow into streams and sewers, destroys fish, game and plant life. It also covers the baaches with tar to the disgust of bathers, but this is not made part of the complaint.

The filing of the suits follows weeks of investigation by Detective Sergeant Le Barron, James Headley, a special infestigator for the City-Manager, and Maj. Alfred Watkins of the Fish and Game Commission. These men, it was said, went over the entire Signal Hill and Los Cerritos cil fields and took photographs of all the conditions complained of Originally seventy-five suits were threat-ened, but all but the eighteen companies and individuals named are said to have made astificatory arrangements for disposal of waste.

WOMAN IN BOB ATTACK

Whittier Case

Mrs. Florence Nutt, 32, years of age, of Whittier, was arraigned yes-terday before Municipal Judge Baird on a charge of mayhem. Her hearing was set for Monday and she was released in $8000 bail.

In the complaint filed by Dep. Dist.-Atty Lickley, it is charged that Mrs. Nutt and Mrs. Lucille Rouiston, 30, enticed Mrs. Evelyn Thompson, 22, into Mrs. Rouiston's home and forcibly bobbed her hair. In the process, Mrs. Thompson's ear and neck were declared to have been cut by the scissors. No charge against Mrs. Rouiston has been filed.

Entrance of a new investment in the into the Southern California field was announced yesterday by the organizers of the J. W. Drake Company, who will maintain offices in the Pactific-Southwest Bank Building. The active executives will be men well known in Los Angeles investment circles.

NEW CAMPAIGN FOR

FLOOD BONDS URGED

The flood control committee of the San Fernando Vallev Chamber of Commerce has been directed by the board of directors to begin a county-wide campaign to bring the note of control bond issue, defeated in the recent election, before the voters again at the earliest possible opportunity. The short time allowed for the campaign is blamed largely for the dc.cat. It was stated yetserday by chamber officials that the measure lost by about 20,000.

In Rumania the financial condition of the farmer is gauged by his thatched roof, "the higher the straw roof the richer the peasant."

The Sheriff's office yesterday remarked into Provide that Florence McArdle, alias Mrs Frank Carpenter, had confessed to the burglary of the home of Emray Johnson, motion-picture producer and director, at 1317 North Crescent Drive, on October 31, last, and that all the property taken, with the exception of one ring, had been recorded. The report of the burglary gave the loss as $6000 in jewelry, clothing and furs.

Under direction of Capt. Townsend, it was said, Johnson left the house and two deputies kept watch there. They followed the woman, who, posting as the wife of the Johnson chauffeur, lived in the rear, it was reported. The trail was picked up when Johnson's Tuxedo was left at a checking station by the woman, it is reported. She is being held on suspicion of burglary.

Preston was arrested after he had purchased a suit of stolen clothes. Police Commissioner Thorpe, believing the young man's story that he was ignorant of where the clothing came from, and pointing out that Preston had no criminal record, obtained his release.

Preston was sent to San Quentin after conviction on the charge of wounding a Loe Angeles woman in a hold-up. Almost two years later the man who committed the hold-up and shooting confeased.

CHAOS IN NICARAGUA

In the threes of war and earthquake,

Nicaragua's plight is a pitiable one and well may be described as chaotic. Sanguinary warfare began in that country early in September, precipitated by the Liberal party in an attempt to unseat Chamorro, the usurper and dictator, who made himself President a few months before and whose rule was not relished by the adherents of Solorzano, the deposed executive seized a British merchant steamer and cargo only by the intervention of Admiral Latimer, in command of the American na-val forces on the east coast, who notified the rebels that foreign shipping must not be interfered with and that they must cease the destruction of American property This latter injunction had reference to th wrecking of the house of the United States Collector of Customs at El Bluff, near Blue fields, the American naval station.

President Chamorro solicited the good offices of our government in an attempt to settle affairs and end the revolution. The the same day President Coolidge signed an order placing an embargo on the expert of arms and munitions from the United States to Nicaragua. Two weeks later some prog ress was made toward an abatement of the disturbances in which no little blood had flowed. An armistice was signed on September 23 aboard the United States cruis-er Rochester by the commanders of the two hostile forces and an exchange of prisoners took place ten days later.

Quite characteristic of the irrepressible Nicaraguan nature, however, were the overt acts that followed. Sporadic fighting was soon resumed in spite of the armistice and has continued, though it may have been interrupted by the severe temblor of the 5th inst., the worst felt in Nicaragua for nearly thirty years. Just prior to the earthquake it was reported from Managua, the capital of the little republic, that a serious international problem had arisen, as a Mexican general had taken charge of the revolutionary troops and was about to bring in twenty officers from Mexico, together with 10,000 rifles and machine guns with the intention of ousting Chamorro and seating in his place Juan B. Sacassa, the Vice-President of a former regime. It was stated that the revolutionists needed only guns and ammunition when nearly half of Nicaragua would rise in their support.

On the 2nd inst. 4000 rifles were landed at Cape Gracias, with ammunition and machine guns, and the revolutionists were to receive more. An attack on the govern ment forces by the rebels was imminen While Mexico and Guatemala are said to be supporting the enemies of Chamorro, only assassinated leader whose fame was of coming into direct contact with those Salvador and Costa Rica are friendly to not enhanced by the murderer's knife. the Nicaraguan dictator. LOS ANGELES, Nov. 5.—[To the Editor of The Times:] I am glad to see that at last a Los Angeles paper has taken note in their editorial column of who is and what is Mr. H. L. Mencken, editor of the American Mercury Magazine. The editorial on Mencken published in today's Times is true in every detail, only there isn't enough of it. Mr. Mencken is surely a clown and the only reason I ever read his magazine is because I want to see how far a man can go in making fun of his country and its institutions without being stopped.

Mencken may be a very smart man, but many of his revelations are shocking to anyone who has any sentiment, and I for one say that he goes too far.

I am a believer in the old-fashioned but proven ways of living and believing and, while I like to see progress, I don't believe it is made by such writers as Mencken and his followers, no matter how clever they are.

I would like to see you print more showing Mencken's weak points and I am sure I am saying what many other readers of The LOS ANGELES, Nov. 8.—[To the Editor of The Times:] It is about time that newspapers and other periodicals begin to argue with Mr. H. L. On Sunday afternoon, two young men whom you have all enjoyed hearing from this studio—Curtis V. Crellin, tenor, and Nino R Herschel, concert pianist—were introduced formally to musical Los Angeles. A charming "at home" was held at their new studio at 1830 La Brea, with many of Los Angeles' prominent musicians present. Mr. Crellin gave interesting groups from the choice musical l'terature of various countries, and Mr. Herschel played numbers by Chopin, Debussy and Liszt. Miss Grace Wood Jess acted as hostess.

MORE THAN HALF A CENTURY OF PROGRESSIVE

who are Practical Bankers

EPRESENTING the active management of the Farmers and Merchants National Bank on the Board of Directors are H. F. Stewart and V. H. Rossetti Mr. Stewart came to Los Angeles some thirty years ago to take a position in the passenger department of the Southern Pacific Railroad, later going to the Pacific Electric Railway Company when it was first formed. He began his banking career in the Mercantile Trust and Savings Bank, afterwards acquired by the Southern Trust Company, of which Mr. Stewart was made vice-president and manager. He held this position until the company was merged with the Security Trust and Savings Bank. While still with the Southern Trust Company, he was elected vice-president of the Farmers and Merchants National Bank, a position he has held since 1912. To this long and varied experience Mr. Stewart adds the distinction of being one of the most popular men in the banking fraternity.

At the age of fourteen, Mr. Rossetti entered the service of one of the oldest banking institutions in the West-the historic Wells Fargo Bank, of San Francisco, which was merged into the Wells Fargo Nevada National Bank. From there he came directly to the Farmers and Merchants National Bank, where he was appointed cashier in 1911 and subsequently elected vice-president. Besides possessing a genial manner that has won him many friends, he is recognized as one of the soundest and ablest bankers in the state.

RECIPE TO DARKEN

GRAY HAIR

Tou Can Make a Better Gray Hair Bennedy Than You Can Buy.

Gray, streaked or faded hair is not only unbecoming, but unnecessary.

Anyone can prepare a simple mixture at home that will darken gray hair, and make it soft and glossy. To a half-pint of water add I ounce of bay rum, a small box of Barbo Compound and ¼ oz. of glycerine. These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost, or the druggist will put it up for you. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. This will make a gray-haired person look twenty years younger. It is easy to use, does not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off.—[Advertisement.]

Cause of Disease

By GAYLORD WILSHIRE

T would be palpably absurd to offer the I-ON-A-CO as a treatment for a disease without knowing the cause of that disease or to employ the I-ON-A-CO in the treatment of various diseases if they did not arise from the same source. The question has often been asked: How can I-ON-A-CO be effective in the treatment of two different ailments?

CELL GROWTH: In answering the question, let us take two ailments which would seem to be entirely dissimilar—namely, Ecsema and High Blood Pressure Now it is a scientific fact that in the body new cells are being born and old cells are dying. It is the function of the blood to carry to all parts of the body, the material for these new cells and to remove the dead cells which are highly reinconcurs. OXYGEN: Before the dead cells can be remi

OXYGEN: Before the dead cells can be removed they must be oxidized by the oxygen carried in the blood stream When the oxygen in the blood stream does not unite with these poisonous dead cells, they naturally acumulate. In some cases the skin attempts to get rid of them; and we have the mortifying eruption—Eccema. In another instance they remain in the blood, thicken it and make necessary an increased effort on the part of the heart to keep the blood moving. This is High Blood Pressure. Thus we see that both Eccema and High Blood Pressure, in fact, many other ailments, are due to the same cause—lack of oxidation of dead cells and toxic ware.

WARBURG'S DISCOVERY: In the past, science had no way of increasing the oxidation of these dead cells. Recently, however, Professor Otto Warburg, the celebrated Biologist. announced a highly important discovery: that the iron in the blood acts as a catalytic agent or transfer medium in uniting oxygen with the tissue cells. So by magnetizing the iron its catalytic value is improved and the process of oxidation of dead cells is accelerated. This is exactly what the I-ON-A-CO accomplishes.

Delightful Free Treatments

However, the best proof of the I-ON-A-CO's efficacy is your own experience. Call at any one of the I-ON-A-CO offices and take a delightful 10-minute treatment. There will be no charge. You will not be obligated in the slightest degree. Surely, a return to health is worth making this simple test. Office hours: 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. week days; 10 a. m. to 2 p. m. Sundays.

W CHICKEN CROQUETTES

CHICKEN CROQUETTES

S. K., San Diego, Cal.: One young chicken, two small onlions, one bay leaf, four sprigs of paraley, one large tablespoonful of butter, one cupful of milk, one teaspoonful of saft, cayenne and pepper to taste.

Boil the chicken as directed in the recipe for boiling. Then, when cold, remove all the tough fibers and nerves. Hash the chicken well and season with the minced vegetables and sweet herbs, mixing all thoroughly. Then take a cupful of soft bread, wet it and squeeze and soak in a cupful of milk in which you have beaten two eggs. Mix all this with the chicken very thoroughly and season to taste. When well mixed form the meat into cylindrical shapes and brush with a little butter. Then roll in a beaten egg and roll again in powdered bread crumbs. Fry in boiling lard and serve hot on a plate garnished with fried paraley.

Laft overs of cold turkey or cold chicken may be utilized in this way.

FRENCH ARTICHOKES BOILED
W. L. H., Hollywood, Cal.: Six tenter, fresh artichokes, one table-spoonful of vinegar, teaspoonful of salt, salt according to taste.

Strip off the coars outer leaves, or, better still, cut the stalks close with a pair of aclasors, and trim the sharp points from the leaves, removing points about a quarter of an inch from each. Cut the stalks about an inch from the bottom. Throw in cold water and wash well, adding a little vinegar to draw out any lurking insects. Have on the stove a pot of boiling water, and add a teaspoonful of salt. Throw in the artichokes and boil gently until it is possible to draw out a leaf easily, or until the outer leaves are tender. Take from the fire and drain upon a dish, placing them upside down, so that the water may all run off. Stand on their stalks in another dish when thoroughly drained, and serve hot with a drawn butter sauce.

The time for boiling an artichoke depends entirely upon the age and size of the vegetables and requires usually from twenty-five minutes to an hour.

D. G., South Pasadena, Cal . Three inds of beef, chopped very fine, pound of beef of mutton suet, four pounds of apples, pared and chopped, two pounds of raisins, seeded and chopped, one pound of Sultana raisins, picked and washed. two pounds of currants, picked and washed, one pound of citron, cut very fine, two pounds of brown su-gar, pound of candled lemon peel if desired, two grated nutmegs, one ta-blespoonful each of ground cloves and desired, two grated nutmegs, one tablespoonful each of ground cloves and alispice, two tablespoonfuls of ground mace, one tablespoonful of fine sait, two tablespoonfuls of ground clanamon, two quarts of cider, the juice of two lemons, the juice of two oranges and the rind, grated fine. The meat should be good and lean end should be boiled the day before needed or early in the morning and allowed to cool. In boiling the meat, plunge it into boiling (not cold) water, for the boiling water enables it to retain its juices. Cook steadily till tender. Then stand away to cool. Chop the meat very fine, and clear away all gristle and skin. Shred the outer and chop, or rather mince it very, very fine. Then pare and core the apples, and chop very fine Stone the ratains and cut the citron fine. Many prefer to lesve out the candid kimon as the mince meat is heavier with it, the flavor being more delicate and the pie more digestible without it. Grate the orange and lemon peci very fine. Then mix the lemon and orange and the grated rinds, and then mix all well again, and goal it to juices of the lemon and orange and the prover this the cider and cover very tightly and set in a very cool place. Mince meat made in this manner should keep all winter. When ready to use the meat, dish out the quantity you desire and thin to the needed consistency. Be very careful in picking the currants, especially taking out all grains of sand or dirt and pieces of twigs, set. Wash them eeveral times in cold water, separating the good

DISTRIBUTION WITHOUT WASTE

The Consolidation of the two largest grocery concerns in the West

> More than 900 retail food stores join hands to eliminate waste

C AFEWAY STORES, Inc. of Southern California, Skagg's United Stores and Skagg's Cash Stores have united in one great merchandising firm—the largest grocery concern in the West—operating 784 retail grocery stores, 122 meat markets, 6 bakeries, etc, and will hereafter be known as Safeway Stores, and Skagg's Safeway Stores.

With this announcement the greatest forward step in reducing food distributing costs—the most far-reaching schievement, in the interest of the consumer—ever attempted on the Pacific Coast, becomes a reality. The cherished dreams of members of these two great food distributing organizations—to devise and perfect a plan further reducing the cost of distributing the necessaries of life—have becomes foot

The importance of this announcement—to every family in ten western states -cannot be over-emphasized since its effect will be to constantly lower their liv-ing costs while enabling them to maintain an even higher standard in both quality and quantity. The following brief outline of the history, accomplishments and purposes of the organizations involved in this consolidation is worth reading and nomic laws that these organizations—having the same ideas, ideals and purposes—should combine to further the great service to which both are committed—that of eliminating waste from the distributing costs of the necessities of life. In a comparatively short time, each has grown from one small unit—through service—to their present vast proportions. Each has been a pioneer—a leader—in economy of operation, in value giving, in volume of sales and in constructive service in their respective fields. The Safeway Stores, Incorporated, have confined their operations to Southern California in and around Los Angeles, San Diego and Bakersfield. Skages United Stores have operated, principally, in the Northwestern states, including Oregon, Washington, Montana, Idaho, Colorado and the San Joaquin Valley of California. Skages Cash Stores have operated in Utah, Nevada, Nebraska, Wyoming, the San Francisco Bay district, San Jose and the Sacramento Valley of California. Since they were in non-competing territories, this consolidation is a logical union of two great organizations—of approximately equal strength—for the purpose of effecting further operating economies and enhancing the service which both are pledged to render the consuming public.

It is our honest conviction that, in perfecting this consolidation, we have performed a real service to the consumer. It gives us a volume which can make possible the operation of our own sources of supply and the owning of our merchandise without paying tribute to a single unnecessary middleman. It enables us to effect operating economies never possible in our former separate plans of merchandising and will attract to us the highest type of earnest, ambitious men who will recognize, in this concern, opportunity for the maximum of growth and accomplishment through sincere service.

In honor of this consolidation and to emphasize our unequaled ability to effect real savings for you, we are quoting below a few prices—good Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday—which are indicative of the savings you may be eafter expect to find at our stores. Buy freely now—while we are celebrating you can be saving.

Warners Want Emil Jennings
There is just the least bit of chance in the world that Emil Jannings may reveal his German efficiency by appearing in a Warner Brothers' production of "Noah's Ark." So far Paramount have found no story for him, and it is known that Michael Curtiz, who is making the biblical story, and who worked with Jannings abroad, has requested Paramount to lean the actor for the above-named production.

Jannings would, of course, not play Noah. It is likely that Rudolph Schildkraut will have that role. He will have a younger park, and one well suited to his fascinating powers. That is, in case Paramount decides to let him go for the picture.

Community Chest Opens Annual Campaign for Charity Fund Today

Tour Heart and Give More!" Carrying with them this slogan, more than 15,000 workers will today launch the third annual appeal of the Community Chest. Until the 23rd inst., this army of mercy will continue in the same effort to raise $3,220,114.25, the estimated budget that will be required to maintain the 154 charitable and welfare agencies which comprise the Chest, during 1927. The Community Chest is completing its second rear of operation. Scores of independent charity drives are eliminated through this concerted appeal.. Chest agencies include institutions for the crippled, the orphaned and the infirm. Pictures on this page show a few theorems of the Chest.

Old age is not slighted by the Chest, as John Clover and Mrs. M. O. Godding of the Volunteers of Ameri Home for the aged will testify.

Being an orphan doesn't mean that little Marie Hope hasn't her dolls at the Los Angeles Orphan Asylum like more fortunate youngsters.

Werner Pingel, Boy Scout bugler, dies in rally to the Community Chest

First to respond in the annual appeal, as in all other charitable work, is the Red Cross. Pretty Millicent.

MANDED BY CAPTAIN WARLEY, WAS IN THE THICKEST OF THE FIGHTING IN THE BATTLE WITH FARRAGUT'S FLEET ON THE MISSISSIPPI BELOW NEW ORLEANS (APRIL 24, 1862). COM-MANDER PORTER, ONE OF THE UNION NAVAL LEADERS, IN HIS ACCOUNT OF THE ENGAGE-MENT, SPEAKS OF THE "MANASSAS" AS "A TROUBLESOME CUSTOMER AT ALL TIMES."

MAYING RAMMED, THOUGH NOT DISABLED, BOTH THE UNION STEAMERS "BROOKLYN" AND "MISSISSIPPI" IN THE FIGHT, WHEN DAYLIGHT CAME THE "MANASSAS" WAS THE ONLY CON-FEDERATE CRAFT THAT STILL OPPOSED THE ADVANCE OF THE FEDERAL FLEET UPON NEW ORLEANS.

S IGNALS WERE DISPLAYED FROM THE FLAG SHIP FOR THE "MISSISSIPPT" TO RUN DOWN
THE RAM AND UNDER FULL STEAM THE LARGER VESSEL CHARGED AT THE "MANASSAS". THE RAM NIMBLY ODDGED THE BLOW, BUT IN DOING SO RAN HARD AGROUND. HER CREW WAS FORCED TO ABANDON HER AND ESCAPED
ASHORE, WHILE THE "MISSISSIPPI" RIDDLED
THE STRANDED VESSEL WITH HER BROADSIDES.

EDERAL SAILORS THEN BOARDED THE RAM AND SET HER AFIRE. FLOATING OFF THE SHOALL THE "MANASSAS" DRIFTED DOWN THE RIVER AMONG THE UNION MORTAR BOATS, WHERE BEFORE LONG, AND AFTER A FAINT EXPLOSION ON BOARD, SHE SANK.

Beauty that sparkles "CLEAN"

New dental cleanness comes from this purifying, cleansing dentifrice

AMERICAN beauty is not a fragile, skin-deep beauty. Glorious health, whole-hearted laughter that discloses utterly clean teeth-these are the characteristics of a care-free mind. a healthy, clean mouth.

Now, no smile need ever show unlovely teeth. For this modern dentifrice gives them the protection and beauty of perfect cleanness.

CLEAN-the newest-oldest principle

A little water . . . and as you brush, Colgate's expands into a full, pleasant-tasting foam. This foam cleans the teeth, penetrates into the small crev-

On May 10 Mrs. McPherson engaged a room at the Alexandria and checked out the following day, according to the District Attornsy's record. Ormiston checked out May II and went to Oakland, where he registered at the St. Marks Hotel as "K. Gladstone." then going to San Francisco, where he visited his parents He told them he would be absent for some time, selling fudlo equipment in outlying districts.

Ormiston next appeared in Carmel. This was on May 18, when he went to Mrs. Daisy Bostick. from whom he resited the H. C. Benedict cottage-by-the-sea, where, the State charges, he and Mrs. McPherson spent ten days between May 19 and May 29.

Bollowing the renting of the bungalow the "will-o-the-wisp man" returned to Los Angeles, registering at the Hotel Clark as "George McIntyre" on May 16 He retained the room, according to the evidence, and stayed in seclusion May 15, 16, 17 and 18.

OTHER INCIDENTS
On May 18, Thomas Scott Melville, doorman at the Clark Hotel, who had attended services at Angelus Temple, testified he saw Mrs. McPherson enter the hotel and ascend from the lobby in an elevator shortly before ren.
About 1 pm on May 18, "I antyre," identified as Ormiston, checked out of the hotel and also took his coupe automobile from the Clark garage. Mrs. McPherson was reported lost in the sea at Ocean Park between 3 and 3:30 p.m. the same day.
Mr and Mrs. Percy Parkes, who lived next door to the Senegist cottage, testified that Ormiston and his mystery companion arrived at the cottage which the radio man had rented, about 2 or 3 a.m. the following morning. May 19.

McPherson said:

"I have no recollection of being at Long Beach on May 8, neither do I have any recollection of having lunch at the Botel Virginia and I certainly was not there with Ormiston It's all pure bunk."

The evangelist left Angelus Temple last night with a large group of her Bible School students for a frolic at . near-by beach.

While investigators of the Long Beach visit declared the evidence refuted the testimony of the evangelist before the grand jury that she had not seen Ormiston on any date near that of her disappearance, which was May 18, other steps were taken against her at Dist-Atty. Keyes's of-fice.

WARSHIPS CAMP CASE LEAVE FOR PRESENTED REHEARSAL

Squadron Puts to Sea in Preparation for Battle Practice Next Week

Declaring the jury had been swayed by the attitude of courtroom crowds. Attorney Peter M. Crosby yesterday argued the appeal of Mrs. Jennie Laura Brown, John H. Tipton and Fred Mills from convictions for murder in the second degree in the Superior Court of Kings county, before the Second District Court of Appeal, Division II. The case grew out of the death of Lee Camp, wealthy young rancher.

Crosby declared 300 persons in the courtroom had shouted and elapped for the prosecution arguments. During train of the case, defense, attorneys had been hissed, he continued. Disposition of a large number of liquor cases pending in Superior Court, in which arrests were made in the country outside of city limits, may be affected by the point raised in the appeal of Jack Denault, convicted in Superior Court or. a Wright act possession charge Counsel for Denault yesterday argued that prosecuting officials erred in filing county misdemeanor cases indiscriminately in Superior or Municipal courts, contending that only the latter have jurisdiction in misdemeanor cases.

Whether a special prosecutor assumes all the powers of a District Attorney when that official is under fire was the issue in the argument before the Court of Appeal between Dep. Dist-Atty, Lee of San Diego county and Special Prosecutor Sioan, appointed by Atty-Gen. Webb to try the bribery charges brought against Dist-Atty, Lee declared the County Treasurer's refusal to honor the warrant drawn by him had been rejected by the County Treasurer. Dep. Dist-Atty, Lee declared the County Treasurer's refusal to honor the warrant drawn by him had been rejected by the County Treasurer is not the District Attorney's in not the District Attorney in the fund in question is solely for the District Attorney's use.

WAS HE CALLED SAMUEL "PIPS?"

Barnet having christened one of its streets Pepys avenue, now inds itself involved in the old controversy as to the correct pronunciation of the diarist's name. Some years ago A. H. Blake, after an investigation of evidence, reported to the library association in favor of "Peeps," but this was in direct opposition to the practice of the Cottenham fepys, one of whom when ad-dressed as "Peeps," retorted andressed as "Peeps," retorted andily, "My name, sir, is Pep-pis."
One at least, of the diarist's contemporaries would have recognized neither of these, James Carcasse, clerk in the office of Pepys, in his "Lucid Intervalla," published in 1679, has the lines: Him must I praise who opened hath my lips.
Sent me from navy to the ark of Pepys.
Which clearly suggests that hey knew his chief as "Pips."—[Manchester Guardian.

WAS HE CALLED SAMUEL "PIPS?"

Barnet having christened one of its streets Pepys avenus, now inds itself involved in the old controversy as to the correct pronunciation of the diarist's name. Some years ago A. H. Blake, after an investigation of Blake, after an investigation of evidence, reported to the library association in favor of "Peeps," but this was in direct opposition to the practice of the Cottenham Pepys, one of whom when ad-dressed as "Peeps," retorted andressed as "Peeps," retorted anrily, "My name, sir, is Pep-pis."
One at least, of the diarist's contemporaties would have recognized neither of these. James Carcasse, clerk in the office of Pepys, in his "Lucid Intervalla," published in 1679, has the lines:
Him must I praise who opened hath my lips.
Sent me from navy to the ark of Pepys.
Which clearly suggests that he knew his chief as "Pips."—[Manchester Guardian.

Why Salesmen Die Young Baleaman, (wiping the perspiration from his brow:) "I'm afraid, madam, we've shown you all our stock of linoleum, but we could get more from our factory" Customer; "Well, perhaps you had better! You see, I want something of a neater pattern and quite small. Just a little square for my bird cage!"—
